

Right click on the file that you want to change what program that opens it.

Select the "Change" button for "Opens With:" and select your preferred program to use. If its not listed in the window. Right click the icon for the program and select "Open File Location" and note the file location to use in your "Opens With".